

From “No” to Nationwide: The my Little Millie Show Lights Up Austin Road Elementary and It’s Just the Beginning

Stockbridge, GA - What happens when purpose meets persistence, and vision meets community? You get a movement.

The my Little Millie™ Interactive School Literacy Show, created by author, speaker, and nonprofit founder Milicent Reed, made a powerful and deeply personal stop at Austin Road Elementary School and the impact was undeniable!

But this wasn’t just another school visit.

This was legacy in motion.

A Full-Circle Moment Rooted in Representation

For Milicent, this visit carried special meaning. Sitting in the audience were her three young cousins, Javeah (4th grade), Ja’Ziah (2nd grade), and Journei (1st grade) all students at Austin Road Elementary and living reflections of why this work matters.

As a first-generation trailblazer, Milicent is intentional about creating moments where family, community, and purpose intersect. Representation wasn’t just present it was powerful.

With @snapzbysnaqz capturing every impactful moment as the official photographer, and Constance Patterson, Assistant to the CEO & iMPACT Program Coordinator, supporting execution, the event became a true showcase of community, collaboration, and commitment. The presence of the Patterson Tucker Kimble family added yet another layer of meaningful connection.

The “Yes” That Sparked a Movement

Behind every powerful movement is someone who believed early.

For Milicent, that person was Mrs. Busby, Family Community Liaison at Austin Road Elementary.

Before packed assemblies, multi-state expansion, and measurable impact there were cold calls. Dozens of them. And many “no’s.”

Mrs. Busby gave the first “yes.”

From the moment she held Little Millie and the Magical Mirror and Little Millie Book of Affirmations, she saw the vision.

“ Mrs. Busby has been divine. Everyone needs someone to believe in them and to truly see them. From the very beginning, she saw me.
Milicent Reed, iMPACT Founder/CEO ”

That belief helped launch what is now one of the most engaging and impactful literacy-based SEL programs reaching students today.

More Than a Show It’s a Transformational Experience

The my Little Millie Literacy Show, powered by iMPACT Greater Good, is not just storytelling, it’s strategy.

It is a high-energy, interactive experience designed to:

- Build confidence and self-worth
- Teach positive affirmations and self-talk
- Strengthen social-emotional learning (SEL)
- Promote healthy mental habits at an early age

In a world where children are constantly receiving messages from every direction, this program anchors them in something critical: who they are and who they can become.

What Educators Are Saying
